

The Ohio Council of Criminal Justice Education and Ashland University “Career Fair” Friday, October 8th, 2010 10:00 am – 2:00 pm

The Ohio Council of Criminal Justice Education (<http://www.occje.org>) and Ashland University will be holding a Career Fair for students on Friday, October 8th, 2010 from 10:00am-2:00pm at Ashland University. In the past, this annual event has attracted students from colleges and universities across the state of Ohio. Although some agencies may not be recruiting employees at this time, they do provide information on their agencies, accept student resumes for future hiring, and give attendees opportunities to make contacts with professionals in the field. Representative from law schools and graduate programs in Criminal Justice, Public Administration, and other relevant areas will also be available to meet with Career Fair attendees. Registrants from past Career Fairs are listed below:

City of Sandusky Police Department	Columbus, Ohio Division of Police
Defiance College	Drug Enforcement Administration
FBI	Firelands Counseling & Recovery Services
Harbor Behavioral Healthcare	Huron County Juvenile Court
