

OCCJE Research Conference Featured Speaker, Dr. Ronald DeLong

Ohio Council of
Criminal Justice Education

Dr. DeLong works in the evaluation and treatment of sexual and forensic offenders throughout Ohio. He has consulted for the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force (ICAC), is a Clinically Certified Criminal Justice Specialist, Certified Sex Offender Treatment Specialist, and a Fellow with the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). He has completed advanced training with the Academy Group, Inc., (former FBI profilers and crime scene evaluators) regarding crime scene analysis and profiling of sexually violent/deviant offenders. He has a private practice and also performs consultation work with law enforcement and others. Dr. DeLong is an adjunct professor at University of Dayton and previously was at Ohio Northern University.

The annual OCCJE Research Conference and Awards Ceremony is Monday April 6, 2026 at Ohio Northern University in Ada, Ohio and is open to students, faculty, and practitioners interested in Criminal Justice. For more information, go to the OCCJE website, <https://www.OCCJE.org>, or click here.